Call Acheson Criticism Lies

Public Reply To Magazine Article

Washington, May 19—(AP)—The State Department said today the big lie technique was used in a series of published criticisms of Secretary Acheson which, it said, are being widely distributed.

Assistant Secretary Howland H. Sargeant told Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) in a letter that the charges, as published in a national magazine, were "a synthesis of half-truths, statements out of context, misrepresentation and total falsehoods."

Sargeant submitted a point by point reply to 29 allegations which he said were made in an article entitled "Freedom's Case Against Dean Acheson" by Felix Wittmer in the American Mercury.

Douglas asked the department for comment on the article. The department decided to reply publicly, Sargeant said, because a private organization which he did not name "has taken upon itself to make a wide distribution of this article in reprint form."

The department hit back with the countercharge in denying that an "Acheson clique" got rid of former Undersecretary Joseph Grew soon after World War II because Grew insisted on vigorous prosecution of career diplomat John Stewart Service. Service recently was fired after an official board found there was reasonable doubt of his loyalty.

Big Lie At Work
Commenting that "here again is the big lie at work," the department quoted subsequent testimony by Grew that he resigned voluntarily. It said that former Secretary James F. Byrnes, rather than Acheson, reinstated Service following investigation of peaks of confidential information in 1945 to the magazine Amerasia, now defunct.

At the outset of its 14,000 word statement, the department challenged an assertion by the writer, Wittmer, that Acheson at a meeting with a group of lecturers on Jan. 3, 1946, made the statement: "After all, what's the difference between Russia and America?"

It said Wittmer's report was unsupported by reflections of 12 other people who attended the meeting, of which there was no transcript.

State High Court Asked To Call Trial For Adduci

Springfield, Ill., May 19—(AP)—The Illinois Supreme Court today was asked to order State Representative James J. Adduci to trial for allegedly receiving illegal commissions on state contracts.

State's Attorney George P. Coutrak argued that Judge Clem Smith erred when he quashed an indictment accusing Adduci in Sangamon county circuit court Dec. 28. Judge Smith held that the statute on which the indictment relied was unconstitutional.

Coutrak appealed the ruling, claiming the enactment is valid. Adduci, 57-year-old Chicago Republican, was charged with "corruptly and unlawfully" obtaining $5,840 in commissions on $21,316 worth of envelopes sold by a Chicago firm to the state.

The indictment alleged that the payments to the legislator violated a statute which prohibits any member of the general assembly or state official from being "directly or indirectly interested" in a state contract.

In another case, Coutrak's assistant argued that Judge Smith erred in quashing six indictments charging former state representative William F. Gibbs with forgery, confidence game and grand larceny. The indictments followed an investigation of charges that Gibbs cashed about $17,000 in paychecks issued to three state highway division employees from 1943 to 1949. Gibbs was accused of keeping all or part of the money.

Sangamon county prosecutors said they were unable to find the three state employees.

Counsel for Gibbs did not appear for oral argument and the case was taken under advisement.

4 1/2 MILLION CARS MADE IN 1952

Detroit, May 19—(AP)—So far this year the nation's auto factories have built approximately 1,650,000 passenger cars and 490,000 trucks.

The total is far behind last year's 2,400,000 cars and 600,000 trucks, but the picture isn't as bad as it looks at first glance.

Last year the industry was heading into the second largest production year in its history. It would up 1951 with a total output of 5,337,729 passenger cars and 1,429,885 trucks.

Iran, Britain, U.S. May Resume Talks On Iranian Oil

Tehran, Iran, May 19—(AP)—Tehran newspapers speculated tonight that Iran, Britain, and the U. S. may resume direct negotiations to get Iranian oil flowing again toward the West.

Bakhtar Emrooz, a paper which sometimes acts as spokesman for Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's administration, said the government is willing to consider any new proposals made by the British if they are "based on the principles of Iran's nationalization laws." The paper did not elaborate.

Most of the newspaper speculation was inspired by Mossadegh's request that all 10 members of the Iranian joint oil board, which runs the country's nationalized oil industry, go with him to The Hague where hearings in the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. (AIOC) case will begin before the world court June 9. Britain wants the court to set on her complaints against Iran for nationalizing British-owned AIOC properties in this country last year.

Social Security Increase Bill Lacks Majority

Washington, May 19—(AP)—A proposed 300 million dollar a year increase in social security benefits founded in the House today on a charge it would open the way for socialized medicine.

The bill came up under a situation requiring two-thirds majority for approval and with amendments barred. It got a thin 150-140 majority, but that was 45 votes short of the needed two-thirds.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the ways and means committee, author of the bill, told a reporter soon after the vote: "I have no present plans to go before the rules committee. Let those who voted to kill it take the responsibility, as far as I am concerned."

Voting for the bill were 98 Democrats, 51 Republicans and one independent. Against it were 99 Republicans and 41 Democrats.

Question Fitness Of McGranery For Justice Post

Washington, May 19—(AP)—Two Republican senators asserted today that Senate confirmation of Judge James P. McGranery as attorney general would jeopardize the entire federal anti-corruption program and give weight to charges of a "whitewash."

Sens. Ferguson of Michigan and Watkins of Utah specifically challenged McGranery's fitness to serve in the No. 1 justice department post on the ground that his integrity, ability and veracity were "most questionable."

They also accused the Philadelphia federal jurist of attempting to "dodge and straddle" in his testimony on the question of President Truman's inherent power to seize the steel industry.

In a strongly worded 45-page report, the two senators declared that when quizzed on that subject, McGranery either engaged in "fuzzy thinking or was intentionally endeavoring to confuse the issue."

Demanding further hearings before the Senate acts on the appointment, Ferguson and Watkins submitted their minority report as a token of sharp disagreement with the Senate judiciary committee's 8-to-4 vote in favor of McGranery 10 days ago.

President Truman appointed McGranery to succeed J. Howard McGrath as the nation's top law enforcement officer last April 3 within a few hours after McGrath suddenly fired Newbold Morris as the administration's anti-corruption sleuth.

McGranery, a Democrat, served in the House of Representatives for several terms before Truman appointed him to the federal bench in Pennsylvania in 1946.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS SINCE LINDBERGH FLIGHT
Washington, May 19—(AP)—The International Air Transport Association estimated today that 1,800 persons will fly across the North Atlantic tomorrow and Wednesday during the 33rd hours required for the Lindbergh flight just 25 years ago.

RR's Accept, Unions Study Wage Boost

Washington, May 19—(AP)—The nation's railroads tonight accepted a White House plan to settle the three-year rail dispute with three big operating unions.

But the unions—the engineers, firemen and conductors with a combined membership of 150,000—were still studying the proposal offered by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman. There was no indication the unions would either accept or reject the peace proposal tonight.

Steelman personally announced the plan and said it would boost wages 37 cents an hour for men who work in the yards and 23 cents for men working on the roads. These amounts include a 12 1/2 cent and five cent boost for yardmen and roadmen, respectively, which the Army, in technical control of the roads since they were seized by the government in August, 1950, put into effect in February, 1951.

Steelman said part of the wage boosts would be retroactive to October, 1950. He estimated each employee would receive between $600 and $1,100 in back pay and that retroactivity would cost the carriers more than 100 million dollars.

Main obstacle to settlement of the long labor dispute, however, is a carrier demand for changes in working conditions or operating rules.

Steelman, who is acting defense mobilizer and chief labor adviser to President Truman, presented his settlement proposal to both the union and railroad management today.

He asked both sides for an answer tonight.

Steelman previously had been in conference with representatives of the railroad brotherhoods involved and with carrier officials.

The carriers accepted Steelman's proposal soon after it was officially opened. At that time, it was indicated both sides would have until midnight, Eastern Daylight Time (11 p.m. EST) to accept or reject the plan. However, one of the unions must clear the proposal with its 100-man policy committee. That committee is here but the outlook was that the unions would not reply until tomorrow or later.

The proposal would lower the work week for yard service employees to 40 hours and would bring a four-cent pay boost for men affected.

The long rail dispute dates back to March, 1949, when the conductors and the brotherhood of railroad trainmen made their 40-hour-week demands on the road.

Employees May Buy 111-Year-Old Cincinnati Paper

Washington, May 19—(AP)—A New York investment firm has agreed tentatively to put up most of the cash for a group of employees to buy the 111-year-old Cincinnati Enquirer.

This was disclosed today when a committee representing the Enquirer employees filed a detailed offer to buy in district court.

The document said the offer to buy the morning and Sunday newspaper for seven and a half million dollars in cash is based in part on a contract with Halsey, Stuart and Co., Inc., of New York, to purchase six million dollars in bonds of a corporation to be formed to buy the paper.

The American Security and Trust Co. is trustee under the will of the late John R. McLean, who owned the Enquirer.

The Cincinnati Times-Star, owned by the Taft family, of which Sen. Robert A. Taft is a member, also has offered seven and a half million for the Enquirer.

CROONER RAY'S TEARS ALL TEARS OF JOY
New York, May 19—(AP)—Johnny Ray, the singer with the built-in crying jag, flew into the arms of his fiancée today.

"The only tears I have are of joy," he said as he stepped from a plane at La Guardia Field after a flight from Cincinnati.

Pretty Marilyn Morrison, daughter of a California night club operator, rushed across the field to embrace him with a lingering kiss. They are to be married here Sunday.

"Oh, Johnnie, I'm so nervous," she told him.

"You goof," replied the 25-year-old crooner.

How They Voted
Washington, May 19—(AP)—Here is how these Illinois congressmen voted today when the House failed to pass a bill increasing social security benefits.

Illinois—Democrats for: Gordon, Kluczynski, Mack, O'Brien, Price and Yates. Democrats against: none. Republicans for: Simpson and Springer. Republicans against: Allen, Arends, Bishop, Busbey, Chip-erfield, Church, Jenison, McVey, Mason, Reed, Velde and Vursell.

Brazilian Planes Seek Rescue Of Hostages

Belem, Brazil, May 19—(AP)—A Brazilian major radioed tonight that he had turned the tables on the rival jungle mission which held him and an American hostage and had taken control of his captors. Details were scanty.

The latest act in the weird jungle drama near the spot where a Pan-American World Airways plane crashed last month came after the Brazilian air force sent three planes with 38 parachutists to rescue the captive pair. There was no word that they had dropped.

The message to Belem said an official expedition to the scene of the wreck found the area ransacked and all money and jewelry which the plane passengers presumably carried gone. Arrangements are being made here to search the unoffi-

British Firms Plan To Drop Business In Red China

London, May 19—(AP)—British informed Red China today that Britons have decided they can't do business inside that Communist country and want to get out.

British holdings in China have been estimated worth 300 million pounds, ($40 million dollars). In a note delivered in Peiping, Britain asked the Communists to permit to facilitate the disposal or closing down of British business interests and to grant exit visas for some 120 British businessmen. The Communists in the past have refused to give exit visas in some cases.

The note told the Communists that the decision to pull out was made by the businessmen. A foreign office spokesman said Britain would maintain its contacts—"such as they are"—in Peiping.

G. E. Mitchell, vice chairman of the China association, an organization representing British business interests in China, indicated that Britains still hope to trade with China, though not in it.

"This could, if necessary, be carried on in future by a small association of merchants, or a trade group of some kind," he said.

Mitchell said there were two main reasons why British firms decided to get out of Red China.

"The first is that they cannot continue indefinitely to operate at a loss," he said.

"They have been compelled to remit progressively larger sums of money into China to meet extremely heavy and often arbitrary taxation demands, and to continue to employ redundant labor whom they are unable to discharge, or a trade group of some kind," he said.

"The firms see no prospect of the position ever being radically altered. The second reason is that the managers and other British employees of the firms have the greatest possible difficulty, and experience prolonged delays, in obtaining permission to enter or leave the country."

Bride In Illinois, Groom In England Married By Phone

Morris, Ill., May 19—(AP)—More than 3,000 miles separated a bride and bridegroom when they were married yesterday via telephone between Morris and Liverpool, England.

The bride, Doris Comer of Gardner, Ill., attended by bridesmaid, matron of honor and ushers, was in Morris. The best man also stood by. The bridegroom, Airman Third Class Harold White of Morris, was in Liverpool where he has been with the U. S. air force almost two years.

Dr. Floyd Blewfield of the Morris Methodist church performed the ceremony from the Morris end of the telephone circuit in the home of White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White. An air force chaplain stood beside the bridegroom in Liverpool.

The ceremony required 12 minutes.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Comer of Gardner, expects to join her husband in England soon.

WOMAN DIES WHEN POLICE SEARCH HOME

Joliet, Ill., May 19—(AP)—A 51-year-old woman collapsed and died today while two policemen were searching her home.

Policemen Donald Boe and Alex Davidson said Mrs. Graf told them she was suffering from high blood pressure when they first started to search her kitchen. She collapsed and died en route to a hospital.

Police Chief Ervin Boe said the officers found canned goods, pickles and spices which had been stolen from the Woodruff hotel, where Mrs. Graf's husband is a kitchen helper. The search warrant was signed by Sterling Peck, the hotel manager, who said about $500 worth of food had disappeared from the kitchen recently.

Police were seeking Graf. They said there were no charges against Mrs. Graf and that they had had no intention of arresting her.

Oil Strikers Accept WSB Pay Formula

Denver, May 19—(AP)—A return-to-work move picked up speed among striking oil workers today, promising an end soon to the strike now in its 20th day, and replenishment of the nation's dwindling stores of aviation gasoline.

The biggest break in the strike front occurred today when the Oil Workers International Union (CIO), with headquarters here, announced 10,000 members striking against the Sinclair Refining Co. had signed a wage agreement.

The Sinclair group is the largest single bargaining unit among the 22 CIO, AFL and independent unions which called the walkout April 30.

Sinclair is the only major company negotiating on a nation-wide basis. Other wage conferences have been conducted at individual plants.

The strike at its outset involved nearly 90,000 refinery and pipeline workers.

The Sinclair agreement, CIO union President O. A. Knight reported, was based on the formula recommended last week by the Wage Stabilization Board:

A wage increase of 15 cents per hour, effective May 1, with a little more than 9 cents retroactive to Jan. 1, and an increase in extra pay for night work to 6 cents per hour from 4 for the evening trick and to 12 cents from 6 for the night shift.

Pay scales averaged $2 to $2.10 per hour before the strike.

Clark Studies Report Of Dodd's Seizure; Release

Tokyo, Tuesday, May 20—(AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark's headquarters studied today a board of inquiry's report on the seizure and release of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd by tough Communist war prisoners on Kojima Island.

The report was not disclosed. The United Nations commander will pass it along to Washington with his recommendation and it will be reviewed again there.

Dodd, then commander of the island prison stockades, was seized by North Korean prisoners May 7 and released unharmed 78 hours later after Brig. Gen. Charles Colson promised the Reds some concessions.

Because of the wording of his promises, Colson was criticized officially and relieved of the Kojima command. Dodd is in an army hospital at Seoul for treatment of a gastric disturbance.

On rocky Kojima island, 30 miles off the southeast coast of Korea, Red flags were not flying over some of the prison compounds Monday for the first time in a week—but it was because of rainy weather.

An officer explained the prisoners had colored the flags with mercury-chrome and catsup.

AP Correspondent William Jordan reported that Kojima's new commander, Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, had added a former Chinese Nationalist general to his staff. He will advise Boatner on the handling of some 5,000 Chinese Red prisoners on Kojima.

Governor Urges States Help Check 'Monism'

New York, May 19—(AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois urged the states to help check "the strong tidal wave of monism and man-moth government" in Washington.

(Monism is defined as "the doctrine that there is only one kind of substance or ultimate reality . . .")

The Democratic governor, who has said he is not a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, wrote in Look magazine:

" . . . I have learned that there is work to be done in our state capitals—important and rewarding work. It also affords us the only hope for a proper degree of balance in our federalism."

Speaking of the Russian threat, he said:

"The kind of government we have is putting pressure on us to recreate our own in its image. On top of the expansion of the federal establishment caused by social advances of the 1930's, we had to pile the machinery needed to crush the threat of fascism in World War II. And now, on top of all that, have come the new activities, the added personnel, the skyrocketing expenditures, needed to protect the free world against the menace of Communist imperialism."

Stevenson said that as many government functions as possible should be kept on a state or local level. He cited education, highways and mental health among "many more."

KEAUFER SUPPORT

Los Angeles, May 19—(AP)—James Roosevelt today declared himself for Sen. Estes Keauffer of Tennessee, who is seeking Democratic presidential nomination votes in California's June 3 primary.

Roosevelt, eldest son of the late president, was for President Truman until he pulled out of the race. The Truman delegate candidates then became a state nominally pledged to California Attorney General Edmund G. (Pat) Brown.

Joy To Return From Korea

Ridgway Arrives In Capital; Leaves Soon For Europe

Washington, May 19—(AP)—General Matthew B. Ridgway flew into Washington today to report on his completed mission in the Far East and to confer on the new supreme command in Europe to which he is going next week.

Arrived at 4:54 p.m. CDT, by military plane from Albuquerque, N.M., with Mrs. Ridgway and their three-year-old son, Matthew B. Jr.

In a brief appearance in front of television and news cameras, Ridgway said he was "happy indeed" to be returning to the same airport that he had left on "a dark night 17 months ago," to take the field command vacated by the death of Gen. Walton Walker in Korea.

Ridgway said that he had a crowded week ahead of him before he flies to France next Monday. During this week, Ridgway said he would report to his superiors on Far Eastern matters and "learn much of my new assignment in Europe."

Ridgway also is scheduled to appear at a closed session of the senate armed services committee on Wednesday.

Gen. Omar Bradley, among the welcoming celebrities, thanked Ridgway for the "grand job you did in Korea." The new supreme commander for the western Allies in Europe replied that he would "do my level best" as successor to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Body Of Student Taken From Icy Mount St. Helens

Spirit Lake, Wash., May 19—(AP)—The state patrol reported today that the body of Art Jesett, 20-year-old University of Washington student, has been recovered from the icy crevasse he fell into Sunday on Mount St. Helens.

The patrol said the body was being brought down to the Spirit Lake base camp shortly. No other information was immediately available.

A nine-man searching party headed for the young man's icy tomb early this morning. The patrol said they reached the scene at 1 a.m. (CDT) but were hampered by heavy rain and fog in the area.

The radio report of the body recovery broke a daylong silence on the mountain. Watchers at the base camp here saw the rescue party reach the scene of the 8,000-foot level shortly before noon. Pacific daylight time, but there was no radio contact.

Jesett dropped through the snow "bridge" over the crevasse Sunday afternoon as he trailed three companions on their descent from the 9,671-foot peak.

For a while the others could talk with him without being able to see him in his ice trap below. Then he slid farther down. They heard intermittent moans from the crevasse depths . . . then a long silence and the cold night.

Mount St. Helens, shaped like a giant ice cream cone, is about 50 miles south of Joliet Mount Rainier and about the same distance north-east of Portland, Ore.

Tragically, the only rope in the climbing party was coiled around Jesett's shoulders when he dropped through the snow that covered the treacherous crevasse with the cry: "I'm slipping."

The 120-foot rope that went into the crevasse with Jesett might have been long enough to effect a rescue if one of the other youths had had it—and it possibly would have prevented the accident if they had been tied together with it.

Political Plum Seen In Postal Civil Service Plan

Washington, May 19—(AP)—A Senate committee heard testimony today that the postmaster general would become the nation's biggest political power under President Truman's plan to put the nation's postmasters on a strict civil service basis.

The Senate government operations committee is hearing testimony on a proposal that would eliminate presidential appointment and a Senate confirmation of first, second and third class postmasters.

The postmaster general would make the selections under civil service regulations. There are 21,438 postmasters in these grades.

Jerome Keating, secretary of the National Association of Letter Carriers, testified:

"No single individual in the United States would wield the power comparable to that of the postmaster general if, in addition to administering a two billion dollar business, he also had personal representatives who were obligated and responsible only to him in 22,000 cities in the United States."

Feels Reds Prefer Talk To Signing

Munsan, Tuesday, May 20—(AP)—Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy prepared today to leave his wearing assignment as head of the United Nations Command truce team. The talks remained bitterly deadlocked.

Although an armistice seemed far away, the 57-year-old admiral feels his job is done.

"The rest is up to the Communists," he said in a statement, adding that the Reds "seem more interested in talking than signing."

Joy heads the five-member top level team back at Panmunjom for another session today at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. CDT, Monday).

Harrison Succeeds Joy
The U. N. command announced Monday that Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, Jr., a member of the team, would succeed Joy when Joy makes his last trip before he leaves for his new assignment as superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Joy also is commander of U. S. naval forces in the Far East. He will be succeeded in that capacity by Vice Adm. Robert P. Briscoe, U. S. Seventh fleet commander. Vice Adm. Joseph J. Clark replaces Briscoe.

Joy headed the armistice delegation since the talks began last July 10. He is the only remaining member of the original team.

Usually mild-mannered and soft-spoken, the gray-haired admiral has become increasingly irritated by Reds' propaganda outbursts.

Exchange of prisoners is the major issue blocking a truce. The screening showed that only 70,000 of 169,000 Communists prisoners wish to return.

OPS To Allow Higher Prices On Canned Goods

Washington, May 19—(AP)—The government issued a price order today which it said will mean a boost of one to two cents a can in many types for most popular canned vegetables, fruits and juices.

The order affects profit margins of wholesale grocers. The Office of Price Stabilization said the action, effective tomorrow, was needed because of "markedly lower earnings" being realized by wholesalers.

The increased ceilings will apply to corn, green beans, peas, tomatoes and tomato juice, canned fruit cocktail, pineapple peaches and pears.

OPS also announced today that price controls are being suspended on raw cotton and virtually all textiles, including those made of wool, cotton and synthetic fibers. The action is expected to have much if any effect on consumer prices, because all the items affected have been selling well below ceilings.

OPS said Director Ellis Arnall had signed the order, but its details were not immediately made public.

As for food prices, OPS officials said further increases in a wide range of items can be expected soon under an order permitting retailers to increase their mark-ups on many types of foods. These will include such things as concentrated coffee, dry cereals, cookies and many canned meats except tuna and salmon.

QUITE FIT TO DRIVE
Canterbury, Eng., May 19—(AP)—Elliot Allard, a solicitor, as brought in on a charge of driving while drunk.

Police asked him to say "British Constitution." He did so, splendidly. Then Allard insisted that he be permitted to say: "The Lethal Police dismiseth us." He exulted at this.

Said the police inspector: "Quite fit to drive." The judge agreed and dismissed the charge.

FREE BRIDGE AT LOUISIANA

The heavy pickup in the volume of traffic through Jacksonville and other communities along U.S. Routes 36-54 is reflected by announcement that the Champ Clark bridge across the Mississippi river at Louisiana, Mo., will become a free bridge on Saturday, June 7. Business has been so good at the bridge office during the past few years that Pike county, Missouri, its present owner, is ready to terminate an agreement which will turn maintenance of the span over to the Illinois and Missouri highway departments many years ahead of the date originally planned.

A free bridge at Louisiana, a circumstance which will be welcomed by the traveling public in both states, comes as the result of an order in the Pike county, Missouri, court. The order was entered after enough money accumulated in the bridge fund to retire in full the indebtedness on the big span, which was built by a private company and dedicated June 9, 1928. The private firm retained ownership until Jan. 16, 1941, when the Missouri county in which the west end is located purchased the structure. At that time it was estimated that the bridge would be toll free in 1966.

A constantly increasing volume of traffic which produced unexpected revenue was given as the reason for the speedup in plans. This growing movement of traffic is noticed in Jacksonville, on all Central Illinois paved routes, and throughout the country. The West Morton avenue belt line scheduled for letting and construction this year is one of the outgrowths of the 24-hour flow of automobiles and trucks over two federal routes. Several miles west of Pittsfield the around-the-clock procession divides, U.S. 36 swinging north, U.S. 54 veering south and on to Louisiana. Both routes play an important part in the transportation system of the state and nation.

Toll bridges seem to be disappearing from this section of the country in the face of a national movement for more toll roads. The city-owned bridge across the Illinois river at Beardstown will become a memory when the State of Illinois completes a new free bridge, now partly under contract.

High-speed toll roads are advocated by many highway experts as a means of solving traffic problems. Illinoisans and Missourians probably don't grouch if they happen to be traveling the Pennsylvania Turnpike and have to shell out for the privilege. They will find it nice, though, come June, to drive back and forth over the Champ Clark bridge without stopping to zip open their purses.

EDUCATIONAL PIONEER

There died several days ago in The Netherlands at the age of 81 a woman who developed a new concept of child education, about which controversy raged on both sides of the Atlantic. But Maria Montessori, Italian-born and the first woman to receive a medical degree in Italy, persevered for 45 years after she adapted in 1907 to normal children the type of training she had found successful with the feeble-minded and defectives.

Her study of psychiatry and later pedagogy convinced Dr. Montessori that in their early years children should learn by encouragement, not dictation and restraint. It was her experience that they were naturally serious-minded, and that a developed curiosity would impel them to educate themselves. She flouted the idea that some were vicious by temperament and reasoned that naughtiness was due to some inner disturbance, capable in most cases of being lessened if not entirely removed.

The first Montessori school was opened in Italy in 1907. Within a few years the ideas there advocated were taken up by educators in several European lands and the United States.

In World War II Mussolini, earlier an advocate of the "Montessori method," closed all her schools because she was a pacifist. She made a deep impression on pedagogic thought here and abroad, and some of her ideas are incorporated in American educational systems.

ULCERS ARE WHAT YOU MAKE THEM

BY HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Ulcers are what you make them.

The ulcer used to be the Horatio Alger disease. A man started off life poor but ended up wealthy and hostessly, and he had an ulcer.

—And ulcer-ridden.

—An ulcer became a badge of success, particularly in the movie, radio and advertising fields, although industrial leaders were prone to catch them, too. The big bag was: "Even my ulcers are getting ulcers."

But today the ulcer no longer is an internal medal of honor in the struggle to get ahead. Somehow the word got around that ulcers were the product of tension. That immediately made the ulcer the property of the common man. For who in these times doesn't brag about the tension he is under?

Not to have an ulcer now is a kind of rebuke of your way of life, an implication you have been cheating by failing to do your fair share of the "general worrying. Even housewives, smarting under the criticism they have a soft touch, are developing more ulcers.

Such is the prestige of the ulcer in the business world that a friend of mine, stricken by sudden abdominal pains, went bravely and proudly to the hospital for an emergency operation. When he emerged from the anesthetic he learned to his horror that all he had undergone was an appendectomy.

"I was sure it was an ulcer," he said shame-facedly, and pleaded: "Please don't let the word get around. They'll kill me to death at the office. Nobody but children get appendicitis anymore."

Ulcers are divided into two classes: (1) the social, or fake, ulcer.

(2) The true ulcer.

The fake ulcer is by far the most widespread. It is also the better type to have, as it requires little or no medical treatment and has wonderful social advantages. It is a fine excuse to stay home from work. If you are at a party and the host serves poor liquor, you can get out of drinking it. If you are playing poker and get $100 ahead, you can grimace, clutch at your belt, and mutter: "Ugh, my ulcer. Sorry, boys I'll have to go home."

A veteran victim gave this description of his affliction:

"Having an ulcer is as near as the average man ever comes to motherhood. You feel like you are pampering a spoiled child."

"Ulcers have personalities just like people. Some folks even give them nicknames. I call mine 'aching Abner.' After a while you actually get to have a companionable feeling toward an ulcer. Why not? It is always with you."

"Ulcers are temperamental. Usually they gulp milk like a calf. But some days I can drink three Martinis and eat steak and fried onions and aching Abner won't even whimper. Six months later if I even glance at a jar of pickles, he starts screaming."

"How does an ulcer feel? It feels like a little demon inside you is probing your innards with a blow torch. You have to fight like hell around. They'll kill me to death at the office. Nobody but children get appendicitis anymore."

Hollywood—(NEA)—Exclusively Yours: There'll always be a Cinderella in Hollywood.

Roberta Haynes, a brown-eyed beauty who played a bit role in "High Noon" with Gary Cooper, will be Gary's leading lady in Aspen Productions' "Return to Paradise."

Search for an actress who could handle the difficult role of the Samoan girl, Maeva, in the James ("South Pacific") Michener story has been going on for months, with hundreds of aspirants tested. Roberta came to Hollywood after scoring in "The Madwoman of Chailot" on Broadway.

Don't be surprised if Robert Taylor and blonde Diana Garrett wed within weeks. Their romance has reached the very serious stage.

The Wallace Reid, Jr.,—he's the son of the silent movie idol and Dorothy Davenport—are expecting the stork in October.

Ava Gardner is telling pals she's going to sit in on Frank Sinatra's future press interviews. What interviews?

Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis are editing all the kinescopes of their TV shows for the G. I. circuit in Korea.

If Donald O'Connor makes that Palace Theater date, his wife, Gwen, will team up with him.

TV FILM PARTNERS

Joan Crawford's ex-husband, Philip Terry, will be one of Gloria Swanson's leading men in her TV films to be shot in Mexico City.

The John Archers, who separated and reconciled a few months back, have now decided to write fins to their 10-year marriage.

Even though Shelley Winters is on suspension, her home studio, UI, is all agog at her weight. Mrs. Gassman will be ordered to take it off when the suspension is lifted.

Vera-Ellen's agent is moving mountains to land the life story of Gilda Gray as a starring vehicle for her.

Look what Marilyn Monroe started. Three independent producers are quarreling over who first registered the title of "Calendar Girl."

Gagster observing the three Andrews Sisters rushing out of movie fur designer. Al Teitelbaum's salon in new milk coats:

"Ah, the Mink Spots."

Visitors to Roy Rogers' home do a double take at a pair of bronzed booties on the den mantle. They're Roy's first pair of cowboy boots.

Rita Hayworth's screaming. Columbia wants her to star in a remake of "Gilda" as a western. Rita no likee.

Lou Costello and Bud Abbott in a film version of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The idea is Charles Laughlin's, who wants to produce.

FLYING TOO HIGH

Dorothy Lamour's highly publicized "Iron Jaw" girl routine in "The Greatest Show on Earth" landed on the cutting room floor, but it wasn't because Dorothy couldn't master the circus stunt.

"I just couldn't be photographed," she's explaining. "It was just a blur. It could have been anyone up there."

Frank Veloz's description of a certain actor: "He's always at his wife's beck and call."

Palm Springs is still talking about it—Jane Wyman's impromptu wailing with Matt Dennis at the piano, for hours and hours at Howard Manor. Jane and Matt may team up as a result.

The verdict from the army of specialists called in by Howard Hughes and experts from the Mayo clinic is that Mala Powers does not have infectious mononucleosis. But her red blood cells, damaged by antibiotics, must be built up again. It was tough and go. I can reveal for Mala for a few days.

Alan Wilson says they're now calling the Gabor Sisters—Anahaim, Cucamonga and Arunaza.

Ridgway Is Almost Sure to Get Five-Star Rank Held by Five Other U. S. Generals

Washington—(NEA)—Four-Star Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway is almost a sure bet to be given five-star rank of the Army rank before he goes to take up his new job as SACUR—Supreme Allied Commander in Europe.

Timing for President Truman to send the promotion to Congress for approval hasn't been worked out yet, but a special ceremony as General Ridgway passes through Washington is a possibility.

He would be the second U. S. general to be given five-star rank since World War II. General of the Army Omar Bradley was the first. Marshall, MacArthur, Eisenhower and Arnold were first given this rank during the war.

If General Ridgway doesn't get it now he would be outranked in Paris by two of his deputies, British Field Marshal Lord Montgomery and French Gen. Alphonse Juin. You Never Can Tell

Shortly after President Truman's TV tour of the White House, in which The Man played The Piano, a friend said: "Mr. Truman, nobody will be satisfied now, until you and Margaret put on an act together."

The President threw back his head, laughed loud, and said: I'm afraid that's one you'll never see."

GSA Says Its Wire Service Saves Money

The government's housekeeping agency, General Services Administration, is making vigorous denials that it is competing with privately owned Western Union Telegraph Co. in operating a wire service.

Western Union has been blasting the GSA telegraphic network in newspaper advertisements headed, "Blueprint for Socialism." The main argument is that the government-operated telegraph service is a foot-in-the-door approach to government ownership, which is now being urged by striking Western Union employees.

GSA rebuttal is that the government wire circuit, linking 56 cities in which Uncle Sam does most of his business, saves the taxpayers about $2 million a year. Its operating costs are $1.4 million a year. If messages were sent at commercial rates, cost would be $3.4 million.

Furthermore, the private wires are faster. And finally, the lines and equipment are leased from

The MATURE PARENT

Courtroom Conversation

With Delinquent Parent

BY MURIEL LAWRENCE

We were waiting for a session of the juvenile court to open, this mother and I.

"I want to get the day of my kid's hearing changed," she said. "But I don't want to get the judge sore at me. He wants me to take the boy home for two days before he's sent up."

She wore a green scarf tied under her chin. Framed in it, her face was as placid and expressionless as a middle-aged doll's. When I didn't speak, she went on, lowering her voice just so I could hear.

"Why should I take him home? I don't want to be responsible for what he might do. He's the court's job now, not mine, isn't he? Why don't they just send him up? That's all I want." She sighed. "Yes, that's all I want. I want to see him sent up until he's 18."

I felt my face going rigid with distaste and hastily rearranged it. I warned to myself, "Look here, you haven't been appointed to sit in judgment here. You're in this place to look. Listen and try to understand."

So I said to the woman, "How old is your boy?"

"He'll be 13 next month," she said. "I don't know why they won't let you smoke in here. He's bad, this kid. Bad blood. I don't want to be held responsible."

I spoke carefully. "Nobody's born bad. Not your boy, not you, not me, not anyone."

"He curses me," she said. "I don't know why. He curses me if I tell him to do anything."

"Perhaps," I said, "he's frightened at being ashamed. Children are not supposed to curse us. Perhaps he's terribly ashamed. When I'm ashamed, I always get angry. Have you ever been ashamed?"

She gave me a dubious sidelong look. "Me?" she echoed. Then she shook her head. "Not me. I've never done anything to be ashamed of."

"That's hard on you," I said. "It's hard for a mother to know when her child is ashamed if she herself doesn't know what the feeling is like."

I got another sidelong glance. There was a little pause. Then the mother of the delinquent child said, "I never had no mother myself."

The sun through the tall windows was warm on our backs. Someone off in a distant corridor, a woman was crying. Beside me the human being who wanted her child "sent up" for five years of his young life unbuttoned her shabby coat.

"No, I never had no home or parents," she said in her inoffensive voice. "My mother died when I was born and my old man took up with some woman. My aunt raised me. Say, was I knocked around? Listen, if I told you how I was knocked around..."

I report this conversation for a reader who has asked me if I approve of punishing the parents of delinquent children.

I do not. I could no more approve of punishing the unconscious creature who sat beside me that day in the juvenile court than I could approve punishing dogs for chasing cats, cabbages for not being roses, or famine victims for developing nutritional disorders.

What I could most heartily approve would be better public support of juvenile court clinics for the treatment of emotionally stunted parents as well as their offspring.

chairman of U. S. Steel Corps, told his stockholders that "the steel companies have never asked that steel prices be increased $12 a ton."

Other steel company executives and public relations spokesmen for the steel companies have also gone out of their way to insist that Washington statements on a $12-a-ton price increase to meet wage raises were without foundation. And technically they are correct.

This $12-a-ton figure did not, however, appear out of nowhere. On March 21 the Washington headquarters for the steel companies put out a statement that the recommended wage rate increases "would cost the companies about $1 billion a year, which is about $12 per ton of steel products shipped by the companies."

On the other hand, after President Truman blasted Sen. Homer Capehart's price-raising amendment, the government put itself in a ridiculous position by trying to force the steel companies to accept a $3-or-$4-a-ton price increase under the Capehart amendment, to meet government-recommended wage raises.

K. of C. Convention Set For May 26-27 At Springfield, Ill.

Plans are now completed for the 55th annual Knights of Columbus state convention to be held in Springfield May 26th and 27. Headquarters for the delegates representing 174 councils and more than 63,000 members in the state of Illinois will be located in the Abraham Lincoln hotel. Business sessions of the two day convention will be held in the Springfield Council Club house, 601 South Sixth street.

The convention will open with a Solemn High Mass in the Cathedral at ten o'clock (DST) Monday morning. The celebrant of the Mass will be His Excellency Bishop Albert E. Zuroweste, DD, Bishop of the Belleville Diocese and State Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus in Illinois.

Grand Knight Herman Albright of Springfield will open the convention with an address of welcome to the visiting delegates following the Solemn High Mass, and then turn the gavel over to State Deputy Dr. John T. Murphy of East St. Louis, Ill., who will conduct the two day business activities of the convention. Dr. John Murphy has served four successive terms as Grand Knight of East St. Louis Council; Master of Fourth Degree of Southern District of Illinois for over 10 years, ten years of which he served as Exemplifying officer conducting degree work of the Knights of Columbus in four states.

One of the highlights of the convention will be the report of State Secretary Charles Morgan of Chicago, who will summarize the progress made by the Knights of Columbus in Illinois.

Another important report will be read by State Treasurer Harry Sonnenaker of Peoria.

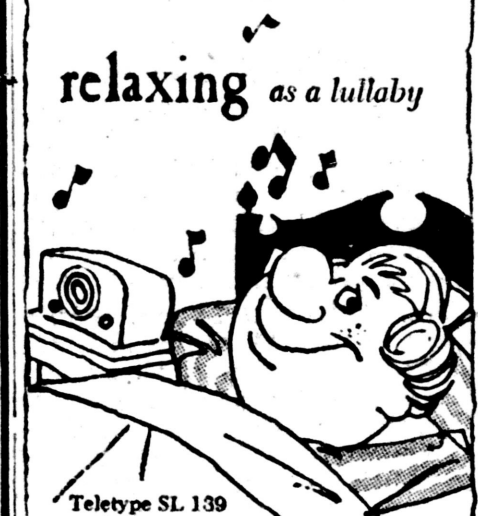

Gervase T. Murphy, of Calumet, Michigan, supreme director of the Knights of Columbus, will address the assembled delegates, at the invitation of State Deputy Dr. John T. Murphy.

The Springfield Council convention committee is headed by district deputy Louis A. Gietl, Jr., who is in charge of arrangements for the state convention. Delegates who plan to attend from this section of the state will be as follows: Louis Gietl, Jr., district deputy, K. of C., and Herman Albright, Grand Knight, Springfield Council; John Feilhaber, Grand Knight, Jacksonville Council; Thos. Finnegan, Grand Knight, Beardstown Council.

Jury Approves Drainage Area Assessment Roll

A jury empaneled Monday morning in Morgan county court approved an assessment roll against the property holders of a new sub-drainage district, No. 3, located in the northern part of the Coon Run drainage district. The Coon Run district is in the northwest portion of Morgan.

Purpose of the new subdistrict is to purchase the right-of-way for and to finance construction of a new drainage ditch. According to an earlier petition filed in county court, the area to be drained previously was inadequately serviced by the drainage system already in existence. The new construction will be connected with the main Coon Run drainage ditch.

Cost of the project, including purchase of the right-of-way and construction is estimated at about $20,000.

Monday's jury hearing was conducted before Judge Paul Fenstermaker. Vaughn, Robinson and Foreman are the attorneys for the sub-district.

James E. Newell Dies At Prentice Home Saturday

Ashland—James Edward Newell of near Prentice died at 11:45 p. m. Saturday at his home from a heart ailment. Mr. Newell was a veteran of World War One.

He was born in Morgan county Aug. 6, 1891, the son of John J. and Mary Collins Newell. On Nov. 21, 1922 he married Rowena Melvina Reiser, who survives with the following children: Charles of Pleasant Plains; James Edwards, Jr., of Ashland, and Gerald serving with the army in Germany; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Jokisch of Ashland; Mrs. William Freitag of Delphi, Ind. and Miss Alberta Newell of Ashland; one brother, Frank Newell of Ashland and three grandchildren.

The remains were taken to the Gainer funeral home and the time of service is undecided pending word from the son in Germany.

Mrs. Shipley Of Winchester Dies From Hip Injury

Mrs. Mary Frances Shipley of Winchester, widow of the late John W. Shipley, died at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning at Passavant hospital where she had been under treatment for a broken hip. Mrs. Shipley, who was 79 years old, suffered the injury May 12 when she fell in the bathroom at her home.

A coroner's inquiry gave the cause of death as shock from the injury, with a heart condition as a contributory cause.

Mrs. Shipley was born July 23, 1872, at Exeter, the daughter of James and Martha Sappington Branson. She was united in marriage with John W. Shipley who preceded her in death 25 years ago.

Surviving are two sons, Max L. Shipley of Denton, Texas, and Charles Shipley of Winchester, who resided with his mother; four daughters, Mrs. Mamie Kendall, Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Stonecipher, Hot Springs Ark., Mrs. Mary Jo Krug, Sandy Springs, Ga., and Mrs. Mildred Reedman Hot Springs, Ark., one brother, Leonard Branson, White Hall, and one sister, Mrs. Lena Korty, Bluffs. There are six grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the Winchester Methodist church and Chapter 664, O.E.S. The remains are at the Danner Funeral Home in Winchester. Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Winchester Methodist church. Rev. Ralph Jasper and Rev. F. V. Wright will officiate. Burial will be made in Winchester cemetery.

Power Lapse Results When Generator Fails

A short circuit in the electrical wiring of a damaged generator at the municipal light plant early Monday morning caused a large part of the city to be blacked out for about fifteen minutes. As a precaution the city fire department made a visit to the plant to stand by in case of fire. There were no flames.

The short occurred in a generator which had been damaged Friday during an electrical storm. A bolt of lightning which struck the wires of the municipal light system, traveled to the plant and into the generator, knocking it out completely.

Monday morning the unit, one of five installed in the light plant, was returned to power production but its repaired wiring was unable to withstand the power load, according to George Coldevey, superintendent of the city's light and water facilities, and a short resulted.

"Apparently our instruments did not show that the unit was still not completely repaired," Coldevey said. "Damage to the unit by the lightning bolt was more extensive than we thought."

However, Coldevey added the generator, one of the smaller ones in the plant, will be completely repaired early this week. In the meantime, the plant's power production is normal, with the other four generators producing a normal amount of power.

Baptist And Disciples Of Christ Meet

National conventions for the American Baptist Association and the Disciples of Christ are being held simultaneously in Chicago May 19 through May 23 with joint evening sessions the 20th, 21st, and 22nd.

Rev. and Mrs. Clair Malcomson of the First Baptist church in this city and Rev. and Mrs. Leslie G. Heuston of the Central Christian church together with Mrs. Jane Hutton, superintendent of the Illinois Christian Home and Mrs. Gertrude Funk, who will appear on the Disciples program, will attend the conventions.

The day session for the Baptists will be held at the International Amphitheatre and for the Disciples of Christ at the Medinah Temple. The joint evening sessions will be held in the Amphitheatre. Day meetings of both groups will be given over to workshops, addresses, worship services, forum, dramatic presentations and business sessions. It is the custom of each of these associations to meet in national convention to grant authority to agencies for the purpose of cooperative programs of activity during the year. The Baptists have a delegate convention and the Disciples of Christ on voluntary participation and attendance. Outstanding ministers and laymen, administrators and missionaries appear on the programs of both conventions.

Rev. Heuston will appear on the Disciples program in a National Benevolent Association panel with one of the board of managers of the United Christian Missionary Society and will serve on the recommendation committee.

White Hall Band To Give Concert Tuesday Evening

White Hall—The local high school band will present a concert, open to the public, at 8 p.m. Tuesday under the direction of Dudley C. Hitt.

Three baton twirlers, Pat Blake, Judy McCollister and Beverly Peery, will perform as the band plays the opening march, "Our Chief." Popular numbers will be mingled with marches and overtures in the selections to follow.

After the band is heard in three selections ending with "Five Foot Two," soloists will play. A cornet number, "My Buddy Polka," will be contributed by Sondra Sue Search. Lyle Neighbors will present a trombone solo, "Polka," and Donald Bertram will play "Wild Rose Polka" on his cornet.

Further band numbers will include "Row, Row, Row," "Sunnyland Overture," "Sweetheart from Maytime," a miniature overture entitled "Springtide" and "Festival Parade," a march.

The band members will be attired in their new uniforms. Among the contributors whose gifts helped buy the uniforms was the Jacksonville Journal Courier.

NO TRUCE ON THE FRONT—Mortar crew of 45th Infantry Division, somewhere in Korea, lays down a barrage on enemy position, after spotters observed movement along the Red front lines.

Arenzville Unit Of Home Bureau Meets Thursday

Arenzville—The regular monthly meeting of the Arenzville unit of the Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Clark Thursday, May 15. Twelve members answered the roll call. Mrs. Farrell Cooper was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. John Fricke acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Don Gish, who is ill with the mumps. Mrs. George Morrison gave a report on Schmitt Memorial hospital Auxiliary and encouraged all members to join.

The major lesson, "Understanding Other People—Our Neighbors," was given by Mrs. O. E. Hackman and Mrs. Elmer Roegge, telling of the differences in people and the things they do. Much discussion followed.

The minor lesson, "Table Courtesies," was given by Mrs. L. J. Wessler, with a demonstration by Mrs. John Fricke and Mrs. George Morrison, showing the right and wrong of table manners.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Next meeting will be held June 4 at the home of Mrs. Don Gish.

Wide Awake Club
The Wide Awake club met at the home of Mrs. Oliver Meyer Wednesday, May 14. She was assisted by Mrs. Clara Schuman.

The group then sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," after which Mrs. Lois Hansmeier played two piano solos.

Three papers were read, "The Birthstone of May," by Mrs. Roberta Meyer; "Wives Are Like That," by Mrs. Mary Nierstradt; and a special article by Mrs. Bertha Meyer on preserving cut flowers.

At the business meeting it was decided to take a trip to Jacksonville visiting the school for the blind and the Big Eli factory on May 22. They also retained officers for another year.

Arenzville News
Mrs. Alvin Heitbrink and Mrs. Mary Russwinkel of this city spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Alfred Berghouse and daughter east of Meredosia.

Mrs. Mary Musch and daughters, Dena and Irena, and son, Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. George Musch and son, George Harold, Mr. and Mrs. John Musch and son Charles, and Miss Linda Akin, all of Arenzville; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Musch and daughter, Sue Elaine, of Green Valley; Miss Alma Deterding and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Musch of Concord were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Musch and son, Albert Henry, of Concord on Mother's Day.

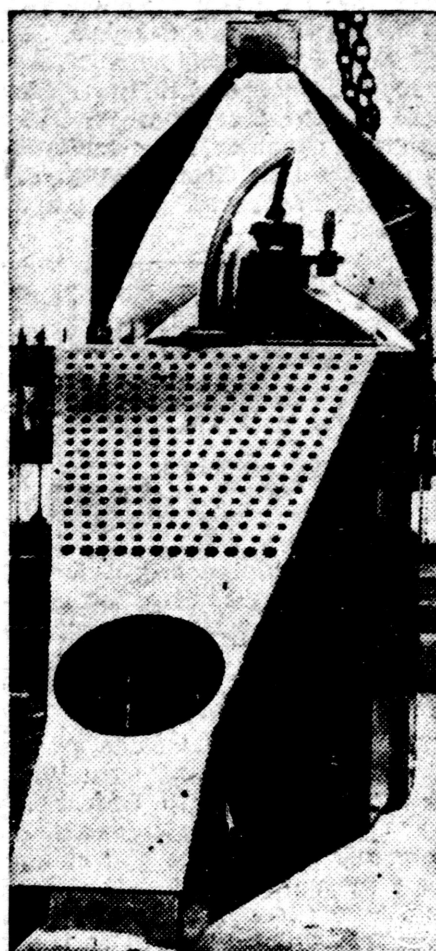

ROODHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Todd and two daughters of Spooner, Wis., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards, enroute to Santa Ana, Calif. Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Edwards were girlhood friends.

EYES FOR THE DEEP—Deep-sea denizens will be robbed of their privacy when this floodlighting device, containing a television camera, is lowered into the ocean. Developed by the British Admiralty for a Cambridge, England, firm, it will be able to "see" underwater marvels for British TV viewers.

Roodhouse Pupils Disband Audubon Group For Summer

Roodhouse—This season's work in the Junior Audubon club, which included studies of stars, birds, flowers and trees, closed with an evening meeting in the home of Sue Hendrickson Thursday. Twenty-five members and two guests were present.

Individual projects to be completed will carry on into the summer.

The meeting opened with group singing of "Songs of Spring." Mrs. Archie Carnahan of Carrollton, chairman of the committee of floral displays for the Greene County Fair, talked to the group on the topic, "Flowers." A film, "Forest Conservation," was shown.

A story, "Chorus of Starlings," an item taken from an English newspaper and sent by the club's anonymous friend in Jacksonville, was read.

Awards for points earned in the club's work during the year have been given to Charles Hannaford, David Lawson, Barbara Clark, Patsey Garner, Janis Gilmore, Sue Hendrickson, Sandra Indelicato, Nancy Israel, Phyllis Parton, Patricia Spencer, Navana Eyre, Janet Hembrough and Jerrold Kirgan.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Hendrickson, assisted by her daughters, Marlene and Sue, served ice cream, cake and orange drinks.

Delores Gillis, a pupil in Mrs. Cuddy's fourth grade at Washington school, is a patient at Our Saviour's hospital in Jacksonville, where she underwent an appendectomy Thursday morning.

Mrs. Albert Powers and Mrs. Clarence Edwards, district officers of the Federation of Women's Clubs, were guests Tuesday of the Orleans Woman's Country club at the home of Mrs. Roy Davenport, where the annual spring luncheon of the club was held.

White Hall Alumni Banquet, Dance Attended By 200

White Hall—The local Alumni association held its meeting at the Presbyterian church Friday night. A banquet at 6:30 was served by ladies of the church to 200 members and guests.

Olin Neighbors, president of the class of 1926, presided. The group sang "America" with Mrs. W. J. Ritchey at the piano. Rev. Walter L. Wilson, pastor of the church, gave the invocation.

Supt. Fred Shappard presented the class of 1952 and Mr. Neighbors gave the welcoming address. Gerald Phillips, president of the class of 1952, gave the response.

The business meeting followed and the officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year. President is Harry L. McCracken; first vice president, Virginia Beth Berline; second vice president, W. L. Dawdy; third, LaVerne Coates.

Permanent treasurer is Russell McMahon and permanent secretary, Mrs. Ethel Ross.

The class of 1902, which held a reunion earlier in the day, was present and was introduced by Hal Gahuly. A three-generation family composed of Mrs. Leora Coates, her son, Charles Coates, and his two sons, Donald and Dale, were presented, the latter two being of the class of 1952.

Gene Casey, coach of Illinois University, acted as narrator for a color film of the Rose Bowl game on last New Year's Day between the university team and Stanford. Joe Cole, a member of the team, was present and gave an account of the highlights of the trip to and from Pasadena and the stay in that city.

The group sang the "White Hall Loyalty Song" and adjourned to the high school gymnasium for dancing to music by Eph Green and his orchestra. The gymnasium had the same decorations used for the junior-senior prom, with the canopied ceiling and walls covered with crepe paper, the lower part of the walls resembling a rock formation.

CHANDLERVILLE

The May meeting of the Duck Haven Home Bureau unit was held recently at the home of Mesdames Emma and Mrs. Renna Mae Middlekamp.

The major lesson, "Maintaining Family Morale in a Changing World," was discussed by Mrs. Irene Fletcher and Mrs. Wilma Fletcher. The minor lesson, "Garnishes for Desserts," was demonstrated by Mrs. Emma Middlekamp.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Mrs. Thelma Siltman was a guest.

Adrian Logue is a patient at St. John's hospital in Springfield.

Mrs. Harry Crumlin, Mrs. Eugene Vaughn, Mrs. G. L. Jurgens, Mrs. Fred Wahlfeld and daughter were Jacksonville callers Friday afternoon.

James Dietsch is taking a week's vacation from his duties as clerk at the local post office. Mrs. Louie Davidmeier is assisting at the post office during his absence.

PROLIFIC PIG

West Frankfort, Ill.—(AP)—Farmer Louis Ruzich's prize Yorkshire hog herd had 13 little additions the other night. Next afternoon, he peaked in on the newcomers—and blinked.

There, with the second-litter mother, were eight more pigs—a total of 21.

Fellowship Hears Visitor Speak On Hospitality

The Christian Women's Fellowship of Central Christian church held its May meeting on a recent evening. The division of hospitality with Mrs. Charles Nichols in charge presented the speaker, Mrs. Leta Coleman, area vice president of the United Council of Churches for the state.

Mrs. Coleman recently returned from an extensive tour of Europe. She spoke about hospitality, in the World Council in Geneva and in the individual groups of the fellowship. "The purpose of the fellowship," she said, "is to develop all women in Christian living and service."

Devotions were led by Mrs. Gladys Rust. She quoted Justice William Douglas' words on the "Hospitality of Persia." Mrs. Francis Plouer, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Mille Kent, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

During the business meeting Mrs. Glenn Skinner, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for the 1952-53 season.

Mrs. Edward Moy was named for the office of president; Mrs. Robert Ray, first vice president; Mrs. Opal Kehl, second vice president; Mrs. Russell Vernor, secretary; Miss Fern Haigh, treasurer; and Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack, representative to the United Council of Churches.

All were elected. They will be installed at the June meeting by Mrs. L. B. Ballow.

As a special gift to the church the members of Group 7, Miss Winifred Fern Taylor, leader, presented a utility cart and two glass trays. Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack reported on the annual May fellowship luncheon recently held at the Bethel M.E. church.

CHRYSLER SARATOGA 6-PASSENGER SEDAN

ITS NEW KIND OF HORSEPOWER IS SOMETHING TO FEEL!

With its 180 HP V-8 engine, on 125 1/2 inches of wheelbase, many people think the Saratoga is the best Chrysler car of all.

We invite you to take the wheel and feel what happens! There's a new sense of easy power, of reserve power that make driving a new experience.

Its revolutionary combustion chamber develops more of the power in each charge of fuel than other engines can do. One result is performance, even on non-premium fuel, such as you have never felt. Another result is new economy. It's an engine that scarcely forms carbon at all. It creates less heat. It will last much longer, stay younger on the way!

And with Chrysler full-time Power Steering, you steer with one-fifth the usual effort... drive with five times the usual control! With Power Brakes you need up to two-thirds less foot pressure... and still stop in many feet less than other cars can do.

Yes, behind Chrysler's new engine you'll find a new kind of car. Won't you come in and feel what we mean?

*NOTE: Power Steering standard on Crown Imperial. Available, extra, on any new Chrysler.

Sale Of Poppies May 24 To Help Orphans Of Vets

Buddy Poppy day, Saturday, May 24 will find members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and forty volunteer students from the Jacksonville high school selling poppies in Jacksonville to supplement the V.F.W. relief fund which has many charitable purposes throughout the year.

Leo Campbell of the V.F.W. post 1379 is chairman of the 1952 drive. Mr. Campbell has been active in Buddy Poppy drives since 1932.

One penny from each Buddy Poppy the V.F.W. has sold during the past 25 years has been used for the maintenance of the V.F.W. National Home for widows and orphans located at Eaton Rapids, Michigan, chairman Campbell, explained. The home is the only orphan project of its kind being supported and maintained by a veteran organization. Child welfare experts, who have watched the growth and development since 1925, unanimously agree the home is the finest child welfare venture of its kind in the world. The home is not operated as a typical orphan asylum or anything that resembles an institution.

It contains a child village, community homes comparable to a typical residence in any modern city where children are brought up as members of an average family, living under the same roof as brothers and sisters and under the watchful care of a competent housemother. This is only one of the many welfare programs supported with the money raised from the annual sale of Buddy Poppies.

Roodhouse Youth Hurt In Train-Car Accident

Lawrence Pranger, 20, year old Roodhouse youth, was still unconscious Monday night at Our Saviour's hospital as the result of injuries received late Sunday afternoon when the car in which he was riding was wrecked by a railroad train. The car was practically demolished.

Pranger's head injury may be a skull fracture, hospital authorities said.

The wreck occurred at a railroad crossing in west Roodhouse. The crossing was the scene of another accident several days previously.

It was reported that other passengers were riding in the car with young Pranger at the time of the accident. However, apparently they suffered no serious injury.

Pranger was rushed to Our Saviour's hospital by the Wolfe ambulance of Roodhouse. Upon arrival he was treated by Dr. Thomas Auner. Later, he was placed under the care of Dr. Paul Garrison.

Jack Alred, another resident of Roodhouse, miraculously escaped injury at the same crossing 12 days ago when his car was struck by a train. Alred was thrown from his machine, which was badly damaged. Another car, driven by Buell Odom, who was driving behind Alred, failed to notice the car in front slowing down at the crossing and struck the latter's machine. Some damage resulted to Odom's car.

Man Drowns At Quiver Beach Near Havana

Havana, Ill.—Edward Steinmetz, 58, a resident of the Chautauqua Park area, drowned about 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon while fishing in the Illinois river at Quiver Beach, four miles north of Havana. The body was recovered after a two hour search, about 100 yards from the shore.

Steinmetz is believed to have fallen from his boat. He called for help, but before residents of the cottages at the beach could reach the scene, he sank from sight.

Two dogs riding in the boat with him were taken safely to shore.

Steinmetz' body was recovered by William Starratt and Gene Bearce, both of Havana.

Coroner Richard Hurley will hold an inquest Wednesday.

Local Pilots Score Heavily In Boat Races

One Point Margin Gives Arenzville Win Over Virginia

Arenzville—The home team was the winner Friday afternoon when it stood off the Virginia Redheads, 4 to 3. Allen held the mound against the visitors throughout the game. Briggs hurled for the Redheads in the first inning, then was replaced by Harrison. The Raiders scored three of their runs against Briggs. The score was tied as the fourth inning began, but Arenzville was ahead when it ended, and stayed that way.

Cedar Rapids Nine Leads 3-1 League

By The Associated Press
Cedar Rapids pulled one full game ahead of Evansville in the battle for Three I league leadership Sunday by blanking the Braves 4-0 behind Leo Daley's three hits.

The league-leading Indians backed up their sensational 19-year-old right-hander with an eight hit attack off Paul Cave. Veteran Charlie Moore replaced Cave in the eighth. Cedar Rapids scored twice in the opening inning that was more than enough to cushion Daley's victory.

In another brilliant pitching feat, Bud Walters of Keokuk set down Quincy on two hits as the Kernels took a 5-3 win. Starter Rom Peeler was the loser as Keokuk shelled him in a two-run fifth inning.

Tailend Burlington down Quad Cities 4-1 behind Jim James' six hits. Burlington, limited to four hits by Ned Nedelco, capitalized on four Tiger errors for the victory.

Waterloo hooked up a five-run eighth inning to trim Terre Haute 8-2 behind Gerry Gardner's scattering of eight blows. Terre Haute failed to back up Don Edwards, who rationed seven hits to the White Hawks. His mates made four costly errors behind him.

Saxton-Rawlings Signed For Bout

Chicago, May 19—(P)—Undeclared welterweight Johnny Saxton and No. 1 lightweight contender Luther Rawlings today were signed by the International Boxing Club for a 10-round bout at the Chicago Stadium June 4.

Saxton has won 25 straight bouts since turning pro. Saxton, who knocked out Bobby Lee May 1 in his most recent start, will be making his first Chicago appearance.

Rawlings has been clamoring for a shot at the lightweight crown, but must mark time until after a rematch between new champion Lauro Salas and the ex-titlist, Jimmy Carter.

Routt Nine At Franklin This Afternoon

Coach Jim Smarjesse's Routt Rockets travel to Franklin this afternoon to engage arch-rival Franklin in a non-conference baseball game. The Rockets take a 6-8 baseball record to Franklin. Coach Vic Mosley's Flash club bowed to Jacksonville high 5-4 in the sub district finals. Franklin southpaw Darrel Strubbe already owns one victory over Routt this season. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

Sal Maglie Wins 7th Of Season, 4-0 Over Pirates

New York, May 19—(P)—Sal Maglie made it seven in a row for 1952 and ten in a row over a two-year span as he pitched the New York Giants to a 4-0 shutout victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates here this afternoon. It also was the 13th straight time the 35-year-old curveball ace has beaten the Pirates.

Maglie hasn't lost a National league game since last Sept. 13, when he bowed to the Cardinals in St. Louis, 6-4. Maglie allowed seven scattered hits today, all singles, walked only one and fanned six to run his league-leading total to 42 strikeouts. Only one bucco advanced past first base, George Metkovich and Gus Bell hitting successive singles with two out in the fifth, Metkovich racing to third on the second hit.

It was the veteran right-hander's second shutout of the year. He blanked the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-0, April 20. By Innings:

Chuck Comiskey Is Shopping For Team In Majors

Dallas, May 19—(P)—Charles A. Comiskey II, son of the Chicago White Sox family, says he isn't going to return to the White Sox under present conditions but on the other hand is going to try to buy a major league ball club.

Comiskey, who quit the Sox as vice-president in a squabble with the board and became vice president of Liberty Broadcasting System here only to see his job wiped out when the network suspended operations last week, said last night he had discussed the purchase of a big league club with its owners.

Comiskey said he had the backing of a Dallas oil millionaire in buying a big league club but wouldn't reveal who the oil man was or what club he had in mind.

Jacksonville high school's Ronnie Kemp (left) edges past an Elmhurst sprinter to place fourth in his heat of the 100 yard dash in the state finals at Champaign Friday afternoon. The big Crimson was handicapped by a be-puddled lane in the dash event. With this final effort, Kemp closes one of the most successful high school athletic careers ever registered at the local high school. Without qualification, Kemp is the outstanding all-around athlete Jacksonville high school has produced. He will graduate this year.

Golf's Newest Star

It goes without saying that a player intent on going places and enjoying golf should get some idea of how to play.

If you have the correct mental picture, take time to put it in practice.

If you believe in it, don't let anyone change it.

If you can't afford lessons, buy a copy of one of the better instruction books. One well illustrated with action shots. An excellent one is Ben Hogan's "Power Golf." Study the pictures closely.

Have a friend with a camera—preferably a movie camera—make pictures of you swinging. You'll be amazed at some of the mistakes you're making, such as failing to follow through, hitting off your right foot, etc.

Take about 15 minutes of practice swings daily, in and out of season. This will help you get and keep your swing grooved, develop proper muscles.

Remember to hit down on the ball with every club except the driver and putter. That is, strike first the ball, then the turf.

To do this, pay particular attention to getting the weight forward onto the left foot at the beginning of the downswing.

Most of the weight must be on the left foot at the instant of striking the ball. Just how much depends on the club.

Golf, probably more than any other game, is a matter of form. Strive for a smooth swing with proper balance and weight shifting.

Forget the pin and intervening hazards. Concentrate on a smooth, unhurried swing.

Try to place fairway shots so you can come into the green through the proper opening instead of over traps, which prevent a pitch-and-run and gobble up a poorly-hit shot.

Practice putting and short shots around the green.

Be sure you know which way the green rolls before you putt.

Don't let yourself be consistently short on putts or short shots to the green. Try to be past the pin as much of the time as you are short of it, and you'll find more shots are finding the hole. Never up, never in.

It requires some practice to relax deliberately, but it's absolutely necessary.

Good golf's easy if you take it easy.

Olsen-Eoff High Doubles At Milwaukee

Milwaukee—(Special)—Fred Olsen and Ralph Eoff of Jacksonville made up the high doubles combination with a 1,209 pin total in the American Bowling Congress tournament here Sunday afternoon.

The Jacksonville pair clinched a spot in the money by leading 250 doubles teams this weekend.

Dodgers, Cubs Play To 1-1 Draw As Rain Halts Game

Brooklyn, May 19—(P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and the Chicago Cubs played a 1-1 six-inning tie to night. The game was called because of rain with the Cubs at bat in the seventh inning. It will be replayed at a later date.

The result left the Brooks tied with the New York Giants for the National league lead. Although the game will be replayed, all the figures will go into the official averages.

Country Club Golfers Observe Ben Hogan Day

Ben Hogan day will be observed at the Jacksonville country club next Sunday. The mixed foursome event has been postponed until Sunday, June 1.

Pairings for this event will be announced in the near future.

In the Ben Hogan event, each golfer plays against Hogan, who will play an official round in Texas.

Entry fee for this match goes to charity and each golfer beating Ben Hogan, using his club handicap, receives a medal inscribed "I beat Ben Hogan."

There will be a low net by classes competition on the same day. It is hoped that every golfer will enter.

Winners of the best-ball four-some held at the country club last Sunday were Joe Doyle and Bob Herr, who tied K. C. Barber and Huck Godbey for first place.

Red Sox Veterans Trip Tigers 3-2

Detroit, May 19—(P)—Manager Lou Boudreau's sharp-field old-timers barreled through for the second straight day to give the Boston Red Sox a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers today. The win, credited to rookie Bill Henry, lifted the Sox into a virtual second place tie with the Washington Senators.

Veterans Walt Drogo and Clyde Volmer drove in the winning runs in the seventh inning with deep outfield flies. And: Ellis Kinder and Mel Parnell, two more veterans, came in to save Henry when the Tigers started rapping the ball.

Sparked by shortstop Vern Stephens the Boston infield ripped off the four double plays, three of them in the first three innings. And Don Lenhardt's great catch against the left field screen robbed Johnny Groth of an extra base hit in the fourth inning.

The Sox got only six hits off loser Art Houtteman but they came in the clutch.

Five Jack Errors Give Tornado Win In Shortened Game

Springfield—It took Taylorville high school just seven innings of regulation nine-inning game to blank Jacksonville high school Crimson 10-0 in the district baseball tournament playoffs at Lanphier park in Springfield last night.

The Taylorville nine scored five big runs in the bottom half of the seventh inning to swamp Coach Bob Kraushaar's local nine.

Bill Williams, who stayed on the Jacksonville mound throughout the seven innings, gave up only six hits but was in constant hot water because of five Jacksonville fielding errors and six walks and two-hit batters.

Taylorville won the right to meet Decatur in the first game of the sectional tournament Wednesday at Taylorville.

Taylorville scored its first run in the initial frame when Williams walked the second batter and then hit two batters in a row.

The Jacks were allowed just two hits all night by lanky Taylorville right-hander Arnold Schmiedekne and got a man to first base only once.

That came in the third inning, when Roger Eard reached the hot corner by the grace of Taylorville's only two fielding errors.

Taylorville scored four more runs in the fourth frame. The runs were accounted for on two errors, a walk, a single, then a long triple by catcher Williams.

The fifth and sixth innings passed uneventfully and it looked as if Coach Kraushaar's Crimson would get back into the ball game before the nine innings were finished. But the roof of Lanphier's newly painted ball park fell in the seventh.

Jacksonville hit the lead-off batter, Billy Ridley, to open the canto. An infield error on the next batter made all hands safe, then a base on balls filled the sacks. Williams managed to get one man on three strikes before two singles, a base on balls, then a booming triple by Gabby Hayes accounted for the fifth run of the inning.

The game was called at the end of seven innings because of the high school regulation which says that any team leading by ten runs after five innings have been played will be declared the winner.

Jacksonville's two lone hits were singles by Bill Dickerson and Don Hazelrigg.

Williamsville whipped Bath 8 to 1 in the first game of the double header last night. Williamsville pitcher Johnny Dunlap pitched no-hit ball and struck out 21.

Two Riders Injured In Motorcycle Races

Two novice riders sustained minor injuries Sunday afternoon as the first motorcycle races of the season were conducted at the Morgan county fair grounds track.

Jack Sitton, a 19-year-old Roodhouse boy who rides a machine for Bill Huston of Jacksonville, was thrown from his motorcycle and the two-wheeler fell on him. He was taken to Our Saviour's hospital where Dr. Thomas Auner treated him for head injuries. After X-rays, he was dismissed.

A second accident happened 20 minutes later when Tony Novak, a young Springfield rider, struck a fence and overturned. He too was hospitalized while X-rays were taken and treatment given for bruises and cuts about the face.

The program, which usually shows the novice races first, then proceeds up to the expert class, was reversed by track officials because of threatening rain. However, the entire program was run off without a hitch for the crowd of almost 2,000 motorcycle race fans.

The track, which had been dampened by an earlier rain, ironed out fast and outstanding times were turned in by all riders. Most of the expert riders agree that the local half-mile oval is one of the better dirt tracks in Illinois.

Bill Tuman, Rockford, Ill., ace, led the field of expert riders in both the elimination and the final races. He was pushed by Johnny Greenlee of St. Louis and Fred Letherby, Rock Island, in both contests.

Howard Amish, Cedar Falls, Iowa, won all amateur events. Johnny Haskel, Janesville, Wisconsin dare devil, and Floyd Vickery, Princeton, Illinois, won the amateur events.

Novice final was won by Al Posner, chased home by Les Cox and Duane Benton.

No date for future motorcycle races at the fair grounds track has been revealed, although the County Cavalier Motorcycle club, sponsor of the events, hinted that more were in the offing.

The motorcycle races headed a list of three successive events to take place at the fair grounds on Sunday afternoon. Al Sweeney's big cars, featuring Bill Holland, will run here next week. Aut Svenson's thrillcade will show here on June 1.

Franklin Emerges Victorious From Arenzville Field

Arenzville—The Franklin Flashea went home with a 5-2 win from the Arenzville diamond Monday afternoon. Smith was their leading batsman with two doubles.

In spite of smiles from the weatherman, Coach Altizer's Raiders just couldn't make it. They were scoreless the first six innings, though there wasn't any mud and it was their home field.

In the seventh and last inning the Raiders swung into action. The two hits they achieved weren't enough to catch up with the invaders.

Franklin's hits were scattered, coming in the first, fourth and sixth innings.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT
Chicago, May 19—(P)—Hogs continued in strong demand on the Chicago market today with buyers paying a $23.25 top, highest since last August.
The cattle market was steady to 25 cents higher except on better grades of steers which were steady to 50 cents lower. The sheep market started slowly but slaughter lambs closed 50 cents higher.
Choice lightweight hogs advanced 25 to 50 cents a hundred in the fairly active market. Other butchers were steady to 25 cents higher. Most brought up to $23.00 with heavier weights down to $20.00. Sows 400 pounds and under sold from $18.75 to $19.75. Clearance was good. Shippers took 2,500.
High choice and prime steers sold from $34.75 to $37.50. Choice to low prime heifers topped at $35.75, cows at $26.50, bulls at $28.00 and vealers remained at $38.00.
A top of $29.00 was paid for good to prime 106 pound No. 1 skin shorn lambs. 126 pound No. 1's at $28.50 and most choice 101 pounders at $28.75. Sheep were more active and closed steady to strong.
Receipts included 10,000 hogs, 13,000 cattle, 400 calves and 1,200 sheep.

New York Stock Market
New York, May 19—(P)—The stock market showed firming tendencies in late trading today but activity continued at a very slow pace.
The steady influences were not widespread and it was by no means a recovery movement. But many prices were noticeably firmer than they had been.
Price changes were mostly fractional.
Trading was slow from the very start and the volume for the session was only 800,000 shares.
Advances included Republic Steel, Youngstown, Studebaker, Boeing, Douglas, General Electric, Santa Fe, Standard Oil (NJ), Gulf Oil and Johns-Manville.
Among the declines were Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, American Telephone, Anaconda, Nickel Plate, Eastern Air Lines and U. S. Gypsum.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
New York, May 19—(P)—Stocks: steady, trading quiet.
Bonds: irregular; changes narrow.
Cotton: higher; trade and commission house buying.
Chicago:
Wheat: mixed; trade light.
Corn: steady; lower most of the day, but rallied at close.
Oats: firm; did better than other cereals.
Soybeans: mixed; trading rather light.
Hogs: active, 25 to 50 cents higher.
Cattle: steady to 25 cents higher on most grades.

GRANS FINISH DULL SESSION STRONGER
Chicago, May 19—(P)—Grain finished a dull session with price mixed on the Board of Trade today.
For most of the session the market was lower, particularly in wheat and corn. But enough buying developed at the close to shave wheat's losses and lift corn above the previous finish. Oats were independently steady all day.
Dealers placed corn bookings at 165,000 bushels, largest in several weeks.
Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carslots: wheat 12, corn 143, oats 36, rye 9, barley 39 and soybeans 67.
Wheat closed 3 lower to 4 higher. May 246½-4, corn unchanged to 1 higher. May 78-79½, rye 11 lower to 11½ lower. May $1.98, soybeans 1 lower to 1 cent higher. May $3.04-3.04, and lard 2 to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher. May $12.05.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR. UNDERGOES SURGERY
New York, May 19—(P)—John D. Rockefeller Jr., has returned to his Park Avenue residence after removal of what his surgeon described as a "benign lesion" from the back of his neck.

Alias Basil Willing

By Helen McCloy

THE STORY: Jack Duggan, a private detective, was murdered while masquerading under Basil Willing's name. The same night Miss Katherine Shaw, who apparently was to meet Duggan, died. Dr. Zimmer, who is a psychiatrist as is Basil Willing, had entertained Miss Shaw, her nephew Brinsley and her secretary Charlotte Dean, and a number of other guests the night the deaths occurred. Basil and Duggan had planned to sell all of his uncle's things at auction. Basil asks Mary Dean if anything were found that would throw light on the case.

XIX CHARLOTTE DEAN closed her eyes a few moments. Then she opened them with a helpless expression. "I found nothing. Nothing at all."

"Miss Shaw was not only lame. She was blind. She couldn't write a letter or read one. She couldn't even dial a telephone by herself. How was it possible for her to get in touch with Duggan without anyone, even you, her daily companion, knowing anything about it?"

"I've been thinking about that. There's only one way it could have happened. Some friend must have recommended him to her casually and given her his telephone number. She could memorize that. Then, when I was out on one of my regular afternoon walks she could ask the maid to dial the number and send her out of the room while she talked. Mary wouldn't remember a number she had dialed after a week or so."

Basil nodded. "And Duggan would come here to see her while we were out on another of those regular afternoon walks. We know he actually saw Miss Shaw because, just before he died, he happened to mention to me the way he—his client—had looked when I talked to him."

"I wish she had confided in me instead of a stranger like Duggan," said Charlotte. "I hate to think of her troubled and helpless, imprisoned by lameness and blindness, with no one near she felt she could trust.

"Perhaps she knew that she was doing something dangerous and didn't want you to share the danger."

"Oh, thank you, Dr. Willing! I hadn't thought of that and I'm so glad you did. It makes me feel better."

Basil set down his fragile teacup carefully. His voice was at its most casual when he remarked: "By the way, do the letters 'W. S.' mean anything to you?"

"W. S." She repeated the letters slowly. "No. Are they initials?"

"I can't think of anyone off-hand who has those initials. That is, anyone Miss Shaw knew."

Basil sighed. "If anyone—or anything—with those initials comes back to you later, I hope you will let me know. And now may I see Miss Shaw's own living quarters?"

"Certainly."

THERE was little trace of Miss Shaw now in the long room overlooking the street. It was just as if no one had ever lived there at all.

Charlotte opened the door of a closet, empty even of coatsracks. "Dresses have gone to the Salvation Army. Furs and laces and one brooch were left to me. Other jewelry went to Brinsley Shaw, with the hope that he would someday have a wife to wear them."

Basil thought of Isolda Canning and smiled a little. If ever Brinsley had a wife she wouldn't want "those ugly old things of your aunt's." But there was one thing of Katherine Shaw's that she would appreciate—the fortune that Brinsley Shaw had just inherited.

Charlotte looked slowly around the room, so still and empty in the sunlight. "It's hard to believe she's gone. I can't look at this armchair without seeing her there as I found her that last afternoon when I came in from my walk, in her violet dress, holding her favorite book on her lap, the blue-and-gold Keats."

The thrill of a shock passed through Basil almost electrically, but he spoke softly. "Miss Shaw, who was blind and could not read."

Charlotte looked at him with frightened eyes. "I—I never thought of that."

"What did you think?"

"That she was tracing the leaves and flowers tooled on the cover with her fingertips. The design is beautiful."

"What do you do with a book if you can't read it?" demanded Basil.

"Well," Charlotte floundered. "Sometimes you press a faded flower or fern leaf between the pages."

"And sometimes you leave a slip of paper there for safe keeping," added Basil. "If you were blind and wanted to keep a slip of paper without letting anyone else see it, what better hiding place than a book that was kept under lock and key? Especially if it were a book you could always identify with your fingertips because of the flowered design incised on the binding."

THE books were in boxes in the cellar. Charlotte's hand trembled as she held a flashlight for Basil. In the third box he searched he found the Keats.

He hid his fingertips under the spine at either end and shook the book, letting the pages flutter. A slip of paper slithered out and coasted zigzag to the floor. Basil held it close to the flashlight beam.

It was a grimy piece of paper and someone had scrawled across it hastily in an unlettered hand.

Red from Jack Duggan for 40¢/45¢ from Mar 26/Apr 26 330 J Bush

"But what can those letters and figures mean?" murmured Charlotte. "If only Miss Shaw had trusted me!"

Basil looked at Charlotte thoughtfully. "How can you be sure Miss Shaw herself knew what they meant? She couldn't read this slip of paper. She was blind."

City Awards Annual Street Oil Contract

Farm Adviser Says Scott Crops Need Warmer Weather

Winchester—Crops in Scott county are normal for this time of year, according to farm adviser, M. H. Banner, but are definitely in need of warmer weather.

Nearly 50% of the corn is planted, according to Banner, who has just completed a survey of planting and crop conditions in this area. Corn that is up has a poor color—probably due to a temporary nitrogen deficiency. Bacterial action is necessary to make organic nitrogen into such a form that crops can use it; and bacteria have been on strike during the cold weather.

"This is a good year for the farmer who uses a starter fertilizer," said Banner. "A planter application of mixed fertilizer will get corn away to a good start—and that's becoming more and more important with every day of the present cold, wet weather."

Army worms that are causing serious damage to small grains in southern Illinois have so far not invaded this area. However, Banner pointed out that these insects may yet cause serious damage; they are not difficult to control with modern insecticides. Toxaphene is the most effective. Used at a rate of 1 to 1 1/2 pounds per acre, it will normally give control within three days.

Legumes, grasses, and wheat are all in splendid condition, although the clover leaf weevil did some damage about a month ago.

PEO Meets

Mrs. Courtney Crouch Wright was the guest speaker at the final meeting of Chapter EK of P.E.O. held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Horace Walsley. Mrs. Wright represented "Today's Woman in Landscape Gardening." She spoke of the variations in landscaping throughout the country, difference being due to the people, climate and soil. She pointed out the beauty of various gardens around Charleston, Natchez, Miami, Williamsburg, and showed pictures of them.

At the business meeting the chapter voted to give $10 to the Girl Scouts and to give their share of the remainder of the convention fund to the International Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Oscar Zachary of Chapter EI, Jacksonville, was a guest.

A luncheon was served preceding the meeting, with Mrs. Elsie Thomas, Mrs. Annie Smith, Miss Betty Leach, Mrs. James Edmonson assisting the hostess.

To Honor Gold Star Mothers

The Gold Star Mothers will be honored at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. The girl selected for Girl's State will be announced and plans will be made for Poppy Day and Decoration Day. Mrs. Paul Lehman is in charge of the committee for refreshments.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Glossop, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Glossop of Joliet, and Mrs. Nellie Stewart of Morris were Sunday guests of Jess Glossop's mother, Mrs. William Glossop. Other relatives from Winchester helped celebrate Mrs. Glossop's 80th birthday anniversary at a dinner Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. V. Wright, Mrs. Elsie Thomas and Mrs. C. R. W. Frost left Monday to spend several days in Chicago where they will attend the American Baptist convention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Traver and son, James Albert, are here for a 15 day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andell. Mr. Traver is in the navy, stationed at Great Cove Springs, Fla.

Mrs. N. L. Hutchens, and Miss Henriette Hainsfurther entertained three tables of bridge at luncheon at the Hutchens home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and daughter, Dorothy, and Joy Coulter were in Bloomington Sunday to visit Norma Smith and attend the music festival.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul P. Garrison, sons Paul and David, and W. Z. Conner were in Champaign Sunday to visit Miss Geraldine Garrison.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pine of Bluffs, Andy Dunham of Pittsfield and Mrs. Josephine Tolle, of Beverly Hills, Calif., were dinner guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dunham.

Mrs. Anna Mae Treat has accepted employment as operator at the Winchester Beauty Shop.

GTS Club Views Southern Scenes

Pictures of the south were shown by Miss Ange Joy to the G.T.S. club and a number of guests during a recent meeting. Mrs. Doris Jean Wilson was hostess at her home. The assistant hostess was her mother, Mrs. Ruth Fitzsimmons.

After a business session Miss Joy showed the pictures, which she had taken on a tour. Among them were views of states along the gulf coast. Mrs. Fitzsimmons had charge of a bird contest. Miss Annabelle Dods-worth was awarded the prize.

A social hour followed and the hostesses served refreshments.

EMPORIUM

A bid of the Illinois Road Contractors, Inc., of this city, to furnish and apply street oil this spring and summer at 12 and six-tenths cents per gallon was accepted by the city council last night by unanimous vote on a motion of Alderman Allen. The local company submitted the only bid for the oiling job.

R. H. Davidsmeyer, president of the company, said the price quoted this year for oil was practically the same as last year, but that freight rates have advanced nine per cent.

The contract the city will enter with the Illinois Road Contractors, Inc., calls for 100,000 gallons, which is the amount spread annually.

The council adopted several resolutions connected with the light plant improvement and extension of water and sewer facilities to serve the new plant of Mrs. Tucker's Foods, Inc., east of the city. The chief one of these was a resolution directing the execution of a contract between the city and company for sewage disposal. This was passed on motions by Aldermen Brune and Handline.

Accept Plans For Work

Another resolution adopted after motions by Aldermen Brune and Allen carried acceptance of plans and specifications for extensive work at the south side treatment plant, to handle the increased volume of sewage from the industrial plant.

Orville N. Foreman, special counsel for the utilities expansion projects, read the measures before their adoption by the council.

City Attorney W. L. Lay gave second reading to the North Church street pavement ordinance, which passed on motions by Aldermen Brune and Merriman.

An offer for the sale of a lot on North Main street, just north of the Buick garage, was contained in a letter from William J. Shields, and read to the council. Shields said the property could be converted into a parking area and set a $10,000 price. Mayor Hogland ordered the communication placed on file.

To Enforce Dog Ordinance

Alderman Brune of the health committee reported that a number of complaints about dogs running at large have been received. He pointed out that a city ordinance demands that dogs be tied after April 1. Brune said a determined effort will be made to enforce the ordinance.

A resolution was adopted on motions by Aldermen Kelly and Merriman, authorizing the payment of $500 for the dedication of the Naylor property at the southeast corner of Lincoln and West Morton avenues, to be used for highway purposes. This property is along the route of the Route 36-54 belt line which will be constructed soon.

Engineer Kenneth Stapleton read proposals from several electric supply companies for large lights to illuminate the new municipal parking lot on South Maudslayi street. He said the light committee after inspection of bids recommended that three mercury vapor luminaires be purchased from the Graybar Electric Co., at a total cost of $304.80. The contract was voted to this company on motions by Aldermen Merriman and Brune.

Memorial Rites Held At Meeting Of Malta Shrine

A memorial service for deceased members was conducted when Malta Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, met Friday evening.

Presiding at the session were Mrs. Blanche Mentler, worthy high priestess, and Ray Barker, watchman of shepherds.

Potted red geranium plants were presented to three women as tributes to motherhood. The recipients were Mrs. Inez Canatsey, the officer with the largest number of children, and Mrs. S. A. Ashby and Mrs. Effie Lee Williamson, members who had the largest families.

A number of members were reported to be ill.

Mrs. Martha McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sulre and Mrs. Ruth Farrell presided in the dining room, where refreshments were served.

There will be a ceremonial at the next meeting, June 20 at 7:30 p.m.

BACK TO THE STATES FROM FAR EAST ZONE

Two men from this area were aboard the Navy transport Gen. Nelson M. Walker that docked in San Francisco Sunday with troops from the Far East. Sgt. Charles R. Goodin of Bluffs and Sgt. Raymond L. Finn of Tallula were named in an Associated Press list.

A White Hall man, Sfc. Gene C. Peterson, is among the troops from the Far East on the Navy transport Pvt. Joe P. Martinez, scheduled to arrive in Seattle Tuesday.

$2.29 PRICE SUPPORT ON WHEAT
Decatur, Ill., May 19.—(P)—Illinois wheat prices will be supported this year at a minimum average of $2.29 cents a bushel, the state production and marketing administration announced today.

Harry M. Combrink, Administration chairman, said the announced support rates are minimum figures and subject to increases which will range from $2.24 to $2.34 a bushel. Last year the state's support rates ranged from $2.27 to $2.34 a bushel.

Lois C. Mansfield Of Near Franklin Dies At St. Louis

Franklin—Mrs. Lois C. Mansfield, wife of A. E. Mansfield, died at 6 a.m. Monday at Barnes hospital in St. Louis. She had been a patient there 14 days.

The Mansfield home is between Franklin and Murrayville. The decedent was born Aug. 28, 1887, the daughter of John and Josephine Bunton Rochester. Her parents preceded her in death.

Her marriage took place in April, 1912.

She leaves her husband; five daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Hudson of Jacksonville, Mrs. Helen Redfern and Mrs. Marjorie Wyatt of Granite City, Miss Wanda of Washington, D. C., and Miss Joan at home; and one son, David of Murrayville, route 2. There are three grandchildren.

Three sisters and three brothers also survive. They are Golden Rochester of Jacksonville, Mrs. Belle Forester and Mrs. Neva Funk of Roodhouse, Jim Rochester of White Hall, Art of St. Louis and Gene of Indianapolis.

The body was taken to the Neece Funeral Home at Franklin. Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Youngblood Baptist church in Nortonville with Rev. Henry Spencer of Jacksonville officiating.

Interment will be made in the Youngblood cemetery.

Mrs. Emma Owens Dies; Meredosia Rites To Be Held

Meredosia—Mrs. Emma Vortman Owens, wife of Ernest Owens, of Baylis, died Sunday at 2:20 p.m. at St. Mary's hospital in Quincy at the age of 61 years. She had resided in Baylis for 15 years.

She was a member of the Methodist church at Concord.

Surviving are the husband, and the following children, Walter Owens, Beloit, Wis.; Raymond Owens of Sweetwater, Ill.; Mrs. Clarence Paulmann, Bluffs; Donald Owens, Baylis; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Vortman, Lincoln, Ill.; Mrs. Edith Schuessler, Hannibal, Mo.; Mrs. Katie Welch, Naples; one brother, Ray Vortman, Bluffs; and 13 grandchildren.

Two sons preceded her in death. The body was taken to the Schaefer Funeral Home in Meredosia, where the family will meet friends from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday.

Funeral services will be held at the Meredosia Methodist church at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday with Rev. Guy Longenbaugh officiating. The body will be taken to the church one hour before services.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery, Meredosia.

Shower Honors Miss Emily Irlam At Murrayville

Murrayville—Miss Emily Irlam of this city, whose marriage to Alvin A. Bachman of Jacksonville will take place June 15, was honored Sunday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Martha Joseph here. Miss Mary Flynn of Jacksonville was assistant hostess.

Panties were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Alberta DeOrnellas and Frances King, guests from Jacksonville.

The gifts for the bride-to-be were displayed around a miniature May pole.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Others present were Mrs. Charles Irlam and Miss Isabel Irlam of Murrayville and Mesdames Virginia Beerup, Grace Smith and Eunice Wahl. Misses Isabel Cully, Irene Crawford, Patricia Ringger and Sadie Carney, all of Jacksonville.

New Hope Given Paraplegics In New Chemical

Washington, May 19.—(P)—The 3,000 or more American war veterans who roll around in wheel chairs—the paraplegics—may be helped by chemical treatment, a University of Pennsylvania scientist reported today.

The plight of the veterans, helpless from the waist down, was recently dramatized in a movie called "The Men".

But the paralyzed condition involves not only the vets. Many civilians who have suffered a spinal cord or brain injury are also affected. The arms as well as the legs are left limp and helpless in some cases.

The ray of hope was given by Dr. William F. Windle.

But immediately he cautioned that the chemical substance which may help, a product of a certain form of bacteria, has been used so far in less than 10 cases.

He added, however that the apparent benefit given in the 10 is "sufficiently encouraging to warrant a large-scale, controlled investigation, with a sufficient number of patients."

The Windle tests may possibly lead to help for infantile paralysis victims.

THIS IS AN ORGAN WORTH $47,730

There's a lot of music hidden in that woodpile. It's a $47,730 gift from the Alumnae association to MacMurray college, an organ for the new Annie Merner chapel on the campus.

Two or three months of highly skilled labor are necessary before the keys will be ready for someone's hands. The two men at the right are going to start work tomorrow on the crossword puzzle that will end in a complex four-manual instrument. They're showing some of the puzzle pieces to Clarendon Smith, MacMurray business manager.

The mass of planks arrived Sunday by truck from Boston, Mass., from the AEolian-Skinner company that constructed them. More are to come. Another shipment will bring the console and the blower, last parts to be added. A soundproof, dustproof room must be constructed for the blower.

Organs are built and tested by the company in Boston, then dismantled for shipment. The older company man in the picture has erected nine organs in the past year. The younger man is his assistant.

Miss Amelia DeMotte is chairman of the fund committee for the Alumnae project that will be accomplished when the organ is ready to play.

Elect Denham Harney To State Elks Office

Denham Harney, past exalted ruler of the Jacksonville Elks lodge, was elected vice-president-at-large of the Illinois Elks association at the annual convention held at the LaSalle hotel in Chicago, May 16-18.

This office automatically leads to the presidency of the state association in 1953. The association is composed of 83 lodges in the entire state.

Mr. Harney has been a member of the Jacksonville lodge since 1920 and served as district deputy grand exalted ruler of West Central Illinois district during 1931 and 1932. He was secretary of the local lodge from 1932 to 1949 and has been club manager since 1951.

Rural Population Of State Shows 138,000 Increase

Urbana—Illinois rural population increased 138,000, or 61 percent, from 1940 to 1950, says a rural sociologist in the University of Illinois.

C. L. Folse says two important facts stand out from a study of census figures: (1) The 34 counties gaining rural population either have a large city or are located near one; and (2) among the 68 counties losing rural people, the heaviest losses occurred in southern Illinois counties.

As for gains, Lake county almost doubled its 1940 rural population, DuPage county showed an 83 percent gain, and Winnebago county gained 51 percent. Other showing significant gains of 25 percent or more in rural population were Rock Island, Madison, Cook, McHenry, Kane, Macon and St. Clair.

As for losses the largest was in Schuyler county—a 39 percent drop. Other losses of 25 to 30 percent showed up in Alexander, Ford, Jasper and Pope counties. Six other counties had losses of 17 to 20 percent—Fayette, Fulton, Johnson, Monroe, Pike and Saline.

Folse says the towns of Rushville, Gibson City and Newton were changed from rural to urban classification. This change was the most important single cause for the heavy loss in rural population in Schuyler, Ford and Jasper counties respectively.

Two Persons Kidnaped By Hospital Escapee

"This is a stickup. I've got a 45 in my pocket. I've killed three people tonight and another two won't hurt."

Henry Linstromberg, 535 E. Vandallia road, and his friend Marlene Miller, 710 W. State street, were sitting in a car at the Secrist Drive-In on South Main street when an escapee from the Jacksonville State Hospital approached them.

He was Ralph Wilson, 28, of St. Louis.

He ordered Linstromberg to drive south on Route 67. Henry beseeched him to let Marlene out of the car. A short distance south of the Drive-In theatre, Wilson ordered both of them out of the car, taking Henry's billfold as he left his car, a dark green 1951 Nash.

The two walked back to the Drive-In theatre, where Eddie Bonacorsi telephoned for aid. The sheriff's radio, manned by Harry Goller, contacted Deputies Mose Wicks and Robert Reeves, who were coming north on Route 67 on their nightly patrol.

They found the car parked with the keys in it in Murrayville. About a half mile south they found Wilson, hitchhiking.

"I had it all worked out," Wilson said. "If some goof driving an automobile had picked me up, I'd been clean."

Linstromberg's purse was recovered. Wilson explained to Sheriff Hemmrough that he was only feeling about the stickup. He said "There's nothing wrong with me, except that I hear noises."

Musch of Beardstown; one brother, William Strohecker of Beardstown; and two sisters, Mrs. Randolph Laughery of Beardstown and Mrs. Roy Becker of Watervliet, N.Y.

There are five grandchildren, David and Karen Fuchs of Alexander; Miss Betty Moseley, Franklin and Doris and Marcell Beard of Golden.

The body was taken to the Simpson Funeral Home in Beardstown. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Burglars Drink Chocolate Milk, Ransack School

Time out for refreshments was taken by burglars at the South Jacksonville consolidated grade school sometime Saturday night. Three bottles of chocolate milk found in the cafeteria were downed by the burglars, who stole $10, ransacked most of the rooms, and caused considerable damage.

The burglary was discovered Sunday morning by the janitor, who notified Supt. J. Merle Wade and the sheriff's office.

A brick was tossed through the west door of the school to gain entrance. The glass in a store room also was shattered as the prowlers moved about, looking for valuables.

The cash was removed from the lunch supervisor's desk.

Although the burglars visited the room where the school safe is located, they did not make an attempt to open it.

Deputy Sheriffs Edlen, Timmons, and Hoeker began an investigation Sunday morning.
